

Engineering Department

Graphic Designer – Product Development

ASA Electronics is a global leader in the design, development and manufacturing of mobile electronics. We serve OEM Manufacturers in the RV, Marine, Heavy Duty, Commercial Vehicle and Sport Utility industries developing specialty products based on customer needs and emerging technologies.

As a Graphic Designer at ASA, you will work under the direction of our Product and Business Development Manager to develop new product Industrial Designs, Graphical User Interfaces, Mobile Device App graphics, User Interface flow documents and other product definition related documents.

Past experience and working knowledge of automotive and/or consumer electronics GUI, HMI and typography is required for this position.

- Must have extensive knowledge of graphic designs and/or web design background
- Ability to design graphic icons and animation
- High level of creativity and passion for visual arts
- Excellent knowledge of color combination and blending
- Ability to keep to time and deadlines
- Must be able to maintain focus to achieve set goals in fast paced environment
- Detail oriented and strong organizational skills

Proficient in the latest versions of Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop software.